Als transportation and perhaps for various military missions in a very demanding environment. The 2016 UNGASS on drug policy resulted in an Outcome Document detailing profound differences of opinion and practice between different states.

Some European and South American states are pushing for a new approach based on regulation, decriminalisation and harm reduction. But those seeking to revise prohibition strategies faces entrenched resistance, primarily by the U.S. This approach to regional and global affairs reflects the tension between two very different worlds the perceptual and the actual. The Kremlin highlights the decline of the West, a resurgent Russia, and the emergence of a new multipolar order. But this idealized view is contradicted by a world disorder that challenges core assumptions about the dominance of great powers and the utility of military might. Its lesson is that only those states that embrace change will prosper in the twenty-first century.
